All yard sales shall be subject to the following regulations:

- No more than five families shall participate in any one yard sale.
- No person shall place any cards or placards advertising a yard sale on any real property without first obtaining consent of the owner of the real property. All yard sale signs shall not be posted more than seventy-two (72) hours prior to the sale and shall be removed within twelve (12) hours after the completion of the sale.
- No person shall operate, conduct, manage, or permit a yard sale upon his premises or other real property under his control more often than once during a three-month period, and the sale during that three-month period may not be for a period longer than three consecutive days.
- All yard sales shall be conducted during day light hours only.
- All items for sale at a yard sale shall be restricted to personal property of the persons conducting the yard sale (not more than five families) and no persons conducting a yard sale may accept or include for sale personal property taken on consignment from another, nor personal property which has been purchased primarily for re-sale.
- Any person violating any portion of this chapter shall be guilty of a criminal misdemeanor and fined in the sum not less than fifty dollars ($50.00) per violation of this chapter, and each violation of this chapter shall be deemed to be a separate and distinct offense constituting a separate misdemeanor.
